with the following guidelines: see your doctor for a prescription and defer any new medications you will need.

Your heart, are an essential part of a balanced diet. I've been on statins for as long as I've been aware of the problem. I went to the college library and read a whole chapter on the topic.

The stated goal of the PCPA is to achieve greater value for publicly funded drug programs and patients.

Then one night while I was at work, my husband had some friends over. After dinner, we watched a documentary on nutrition. It mentioned the importance of heart health.

Wellbutrin is amazing. Bupropion helps add value to the medication regimen.